</table>
- A full fee will be charged regardless of the number of participants who attend. In cases of sickness and other exigencies, the Client reserves the right to transfer the Training Private Seat to another participant who is qualified to attend the training.

- Cancellation of WBT and self-study bookings is not possible.

- If the offer validity period end date should enter into the cancellation start period, the confirmation and purchase order should be received by NokiaEDU by the 1st day of the cancellation period at the latest. If after the 1st day of the cancellation period the event is not confirmed with an agreement or purchase order, the event will be cancelled.

- Cancellation of proctored certifications (which is a certification where the exam is monitored by a proctor) is possible within a period of 1 week after registration via Global Contact Center

4.8 Warranty

- NokiaEDU provides no warranty expressed or implied for or related to the Training, WBT or virtual classroom training. NokiaEDU shall provide training or WBT with reasonable skill and care, ensuring that personnel, and any contractors used, are suitably qualified and experienced to perform the training.

- Where it is identified that NokiaEDU has failed to provide satisfactory training NokiaEDU will investigate and if proven correct, will use its reasonable efforts to re-perform the training within a reasonable period.

4.9 Liability

- Nokia’s liability for any losses, damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees, shall be limited to the Client’s direct damages up to the total amount paid by the Client for the Training, WBT or virtual classroom training at issue.

- Notwithstanding any other provision of these conditions, neither party shall be liable to the other for any indirect or consequential loss or damage (including but not limited to loss of use, loss of revenue, loss of anticipated savings or loss of profit) howsoever arising under or in connection with these conditions, except for Client’s breach of the license or confidentiality.

- To the extent not prohibited by law, the limitations in this section shall apply to personal injury (including death) caused by the negligent or willful acts of NokiaEDU.

4.10 Force Majeure

- Neither party shall be responsible for any failure or delay in performance of its obligations (other than the obligation to make payments of money) due to any force majeure event including, Act of God, extraordinary traffic conditions, refusal of license or other Government act, fire explosion, embargo, terrorism, riots, civil disturbance, accident, epidemics, lightning damage, electromagnetic interference, radio interference, strikes, industrial dispute, or any other cause beyond its reasonable control.

- Each party shall promptly inform the other party of any event of force majeure, its expected duration and cessation.
- Either party may terminate the agreement or purchase order where the event of force majeure continues for a period of thirty days.

4.11 Confidentiality

- Neither party shall disclose to any third party, any technical or commercial information received from the other party in whatever form under or in connection with these conditions, without the prior written permission of the disclosing party.
- The recording of the training delivery in part or as a whole is not permitted.
- Where the parties have signed a Non-Disclosure Agreement this shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding anything in these terms and conditions.

4.12 Disputes

- Any dispute or claim must be registered with Nokia within 7 days of completion of the relevant Training, otherwise the Client shall be deemed to have waived such claim.
- All disputes arising out of or in connection with the agreement, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, shall, unless amicably settled between the parties, be finally settled by arbitration. The arbitrator(s) are to be appointed by the Arbitration Institute of the Central Chamber of Commerce of Finland and the rules of the said Institute are to be followed in the arbitration. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in English. The award shall be final and binding on the Parties hereto and enforceable in any court of competent jurisdiction.
- The arbitration shall be held in Helsinki, Finland.

4.13 Quality

- NokiaEDU accepts the responsibility to provide a quality training experience to Client and the participants based upon the agreed upon training agreement between NokiaEDU and Client, and at the agreed upon price. NokiaEDU will provide an instructor qualified to conduct the course(s) as well as all necessary training materials sufficient for the number of registered participants on the scheduled dates.
- NokiaEDU will try to accommodate special requirements that have been made known at the time of training confirmation. If special accommodations are required, please advise NokiaEDU of such accommodation requirements in advance.
- The Client will assure that the participants have completed the necessary pre-requisites otherwise NokiaEDU cannot be held liable for delivery quality.
• Every Training event shall be evaluated by means of a training evaluation. This training evaluation is as standard conducted via an online evaluation only and will be considered a key indicator of the Training quality.

• When a training event is evaluated by Client as of inadequate quality, NokiaEDU will investigate the incident and determine the underlying root causes. This investigation will take into account the input of the Client participants as well as the instructor. NokiaEDU will share the result of the investigation with the Client.

• Where the Client requests more participants attend the training that exceeds the specified course maximum, a decision will be made by the NokiaEDU as to whether it is possible for them to attend and the associated additional costs.

• For Classroom training events, if additional unplanned students arrive at the course start, NokiaEDU reserves the right to request that the unplanned students leave the course.

• Where the maximum number of participants stipulated is exceeded as a result of actions by the Client without prior approval, NokiaEDU will not be held liable for the delivery quality.

• Participants of a training course are to attend at least 80% of the delivery to be considered ‘Successful’. If a participant does not attend 80% of the training, the participant will not be able to download their Recognition of Participation and their Training History will not be updated.

4.14 Termination

• In the event that the other party is in default of a material obligation of these conditions and fails to remedy such default within 30 days, then the other party shall have the right to terminate the agreement forthwith.

• Either party may terminate without liability to the other party in the event of bankruptcy receivership and administration.

• Any termination of any these conditions (howsoever occasioned) shall be without prejudice to any other rights or remedies a party may be entitled to hereunder or at law and shall not affect any accrued rights or liabilities of either party. However, and regardless of the above, remedial action shall under all circumstances be performed by the Client without delay upon becoming aware of the defect or malfunction.

4.15 General

• Client must agree to be compliant with the rules of the country in which NokiaEDU training takes place. For example, Client shall comply with Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), Limosa Landenoverschrijdend Informatiesysteem Migratie Onderzoek Sociaal Administratief (literally translated Cross-Country Information Migration Research Social Administration), and all applicable anti-trust and anti-corruption laws.
• Client, on behalf of itself and its employees, agrees to govern itself in accordance with the guidelines established for the NokiaEDU facility at which the training is given. NokiaEDU reserves the right to remove anyone from their facilities who is found in violation of any facility rule/policies or who is unduly disruptive in the sole discretion of NokiaEDU.

• Any notice required to be given under these conditions shall be in writing addressed to the relevant party at its registered office or such other address as is notified from time to time.

• The Client shall not assign or purport to assign or transfer to any other person any of its rights or sub-contract any of its obligations under these conditions without the prior written consent of NokiaEDU.

• Words in the singular shall include the plural and vice versa, references to any gender shall include the others and references to any legal persons shall include natural persons and vice versa.

• The headings in these conditions are for reference only and shall not affect their interpretation.

4.16 Data Privacy

In this clause the term “personal data”, “processing”, “controller” shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the EU Data Protection Directive 95/46/EC (and as of 24 May 2017 as ascribed to them in the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679/EU).

Nokia Corporation is the controller of the personal data of future, current or past Participants disclosed to or received by Nokia in relation to Training. Personal data of Participants shall be processed by Nokia in accordance with Nokia Privacy Policy and additional privacy information that is specific to the Training in Supplements to the Nokia Privacy Policy and other notices Participants may see in relation to Training. Upon Participants request, Nokia shall provide the Participants with information Nokia holds about them. “Nokia Privacy Policy” is available at http://www.nokia.com/privacy or other such URL as may be provided by Nokia.

To the extent required under applicable law, Customer will notify Participants and obtain their consent to disclose their data to Nokia in relation to Training. If requested by Nokia, the Customer agrees to instruct Participants to update, annually, their profile information held by Nokia.
